

Nehemiah 12:15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

A wide-angle photograph of a vast, golden wheat field. The wheat stalks are densely packed and reach towards the top of the frame. The color is a warm, golden-brown, indicating the grain is ripe. In the far distance, a thin line of green trees and a few buildings are visible against a clear, light blue sky. The overall scene is bright and sunny.
