

Genesis 21:15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

A close-up photograph of a small waterfall. The water is clear and is cascading over several layers of reddish-brown, textured rocks. The water is in motion, creating white foam and splashes. In the foreground, there are some pink flowers and green foliage, which are slightly out of focus. The background shows more rocks and some greenery, suggesting a natural, outdoor setting.
