

A close-up photograph of several vibrant red tulips in full bloom. The petals are a rich, saturated red, and the centers of the flowers show dark stamens and a pale yellow pistil. The background is softly blurred, showing more green foliage and hints of other flowers. Overlaid on the image is a white, serif text block that reads: "Genesis 43:33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another." The text is centered and spans across the middle of the image.
