

1st Kings 22:40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

A close-up photograph of a diverse bouquet of flowers. The arrangement features several large, light pink trumpet-shaped flowers (likely petunias) with dark centers. Interspersed among them are bright yellow daisy-like flowers, clusters of small purple flowers, and some deep red or maroon blossoms. The background is filled with lush green leaves and stems, creating a rich, textured floral display.
