Psalm 119:127 Therefore I love thy
