Jeremiah 03:15 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.
