

A close-up photograph of blackberry branches. The branches are covered with vibrant green, serrated leaves. Numerous clusters of berries are visible, showing a range of colors from bright red to deep black, indicating different stages of ripeness. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the plant and some sunlight filtering through the leaves.

Luke 21:31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.
