

The background of the image features several stalks of purple flowers, likely lavender, with small, densely packed blossoms. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some appearing as buds and others as fully open, small tubular flowers. The background is softly blurred, showing green foliage and other purple flowers, creating a serene and natural setting. The text is overlaid on this background in a white, serif font.

me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:
