

Psalm 72:19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory;
Amen, and Amen.

A serene landscape at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a golden glow across the sky and reflecting on the calm water. In the background, dark, silhouetted mountains rise against the bright sky. In the foreground, a dark pier or dock extends into the water, with several seagulls perched on it. The overall mood is peaceful and majestic.
