

Romans 07:06 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

A scenic landscape featuring a large river with a prominent tree on the bank, a small house, and a stone-lined pond in the foreground. The background shows a road with a bus and a train, and a forested hillside.