

A dense field of bright yellow flowers, likely mustard or rapeseed, filling the entire frame. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing green buds. The background is a soft-focus expanse of the same flowers, creating a vibrant, textured yellow and green background.

1st Corinthians 15:29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?