thee an house to dwell in, a settled
