

A close-up photograph of a bee on a red and yellow rose with green leaves. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

Leviticus 25:30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.