

A dense thicket of thin, light-colored branches, possibly from a tree or shrub, filling the background. The branches are thin and numerous, creating a complex, web-like pattern. The color of the branches is a pale, almost white or light beige. The background is a clear, bright blue sky, which is visible through the gaps in the branches. The overall scene is a close-up, looking upwards into the canopy of the tree.

Matthew 26:50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
