

John 11:36 Then said the Jews,
Behold how he loved him!
