

A photograph of a garden scene. In the foreground, there are several plants with green leaves and small white flowers, some with yellow centers. To the left, there are larger, bright yellow flowers. The background is a black mesh covering, possibly used for pest control or support, with some green foliage visible through it. The text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.

Judges 21:15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.