

A serene landscape featuring a calm pond that perfectly reflects the surrounding environment. The water is a deep, clear blue, mirroring the bright blue sky above. The reflection of trees with green and yellowing leaves is visible, creating a symmetrical scene. In the foreground, there are some reeds and grasses along the edge of the pond. A dark blue gradient bar is positioned at the bottom of the image, providing a background for the white text.

Job 04:13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,