

A butterfly with orange and black wings is perched on a green stem. The background is dark and textured. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

2nd Kings 24:14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.