

A close-up photograph of a garden. The foreground is dominated by several large, bright red flowers with multiple petals, possibly a type of geranium or pelargonium. These flowers are set against a backdrop of dark brown, almost black, foliage that has a long, narrow, blade-like shape. Interspersed among the red flowers and dark foliage are smaller, bright orange and yellow flowers. The background is filled with various green plants, including some with fine, feathery leaves. The overall scene is lush and colorful, with a strong contrast between the red and orange flowers and the dark brown foliage.

Numbers 35:19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him,
he shall slay him.
