

Job 03:10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

The background of the image is a rugged, natural landscape. It features several large, dark, angular rocks scattered across a hillside. The ground is covered with sparse, dry-looking vegetation, including small green shrubs and many thin, brown, leafless branches. The lighting suggests a bright, sunny day, with shadows cast by the rocks and plants.
