

A close-up photograph of a garden. In the center, a large, vibrant purple pansy flower is in full bloom, showing its characteristic five petals and a yellow center. Surrounding it are several yellow pansies, some in full bloom and others as buds. The background is filled with lush green foliage, including long, thin leaves and smaller, rounded leaves. The lighting is bright, creating a clear and vibrant scene.

Psalm 103:11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
