

Proverbs 12:26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour:
but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

The background of the image shows a lush green plant with several stems. A prominent feature is a cluster of white, heart-shaped flowers (likely bleeding hearts) hanging from a stem in the middle ground. The leaves are bright green and have a lobed or pinnate appearance. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day outdoors.
