

Acts 08:05 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

A low-angle photograph of a large, mature tree with dense foliage. The leaves are a mix of bright yellow and green, suggesting autumn. The tree's trunk and branches are visible against a clear blue sky. In the lower right corner, the roof and upper walls of a house are partially visible, partially obscured by the tree's branches.
