

Ecclesiastics 10:11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

A photograph of a forest scene. In the center, a tree's foliage is illuminated by sunlight, showing vibrant autumn colors of yellow and orange. The surrounding trees are mostly dark green, creating a dense canopy. The foreground is filled with tall, green grasses and some dried stalks, suggesting a natural, uncultivated area. The overall lighting is soft, with the sun filtering through the leaves.
